Preface

- Leadership Skills are required to motivate people, direct them to carry out their tasks.
- Leaders need to effectively delegate the responsibilities and they also need to be flexible enough to solve the problems.
- During this current Pandemic Situation, Leaders need to be born to lead the flock of teams to attain sustainable goals for the organization.
- The Focus should be provided to improve sustainable and participatory interaction among students, colleagues and Leaders can put forward a step for the same.
- Pharma Candidates work in circumstances, that demand them to exhibit productive leadership skills in order to guide the team to attain proper goals as well as to develop the capacity that will never let confidence devalue.
- The Social Responsibility of Pharma Candidates enables them to showcase good Leadership Skills On-site and they should be capable enough to understand the environment better.
